Julius Hammer immigrated from Russia to the US in 1875. He was a leader of the first Marxist organization in the US, the Socialist Labor Party of America (SLP). He named his son "Armand" after the SLP's logo. You've likely seen this Marxist symbol at your grocery store. (1/3)

Incidentally, Armand killed a woman after a botched abortion at his father's clinic in 1919, and his father took the blame for it. Jews have always contested that it's their religious right to perform abortions and contravening that right is an affront to Judaism. (2/3)
